I WANT to speak
English

I CAN speak
English

I DO
English

You work hard giving your students a solid foundation in English - Now let them speak!

- We focus on getting students speaking in English – every day, every lesson, for a whole week
- We break down barriers, stimulate interest and transform students' skills and knowledge into practical ability
- We deliver our unique courses in your own country, in your own school, in a way that supports your teaching
- By the end of the week you will see the dramatic difference we can make

The difference a week makes...

For the Students

- A different learning experience that will inspire them to speak English
- The fun and excitement of working with a native English speaking teacher
- A boost in confidence and fluency as they use English intensively throughout the week
- An enthusiasm that will last long after the course has ended
- The reward of using English in front of friends and parents in the end of course show

For the School

- Freshly motivated students who are keen to use English
- A visible improvement in learner confidence
- A professional partner with over 20 years of experience
- None of the stress of an overseas study visit
- Courses that are easily organised, short, intensive, effective and affordable
- Happy parents, who see the value of investing in their child's future

The lasting effects on learners' confidence and communication skills make the whole experience worthwhile for everyone involved. Teachers, students and parents alike all regularly vouch for English in Action's success and popularity with students.

Lessons 1-3

Activity-based workbook lessons

We use a range of exciting activities and exercises. There is a balanced mixture of whole-class, small-group and pair-work

- Competitive games
- Problem-solving activities
- Debates and discussions
- Role plays
- Creative writing
- Quizzes
- Board races
- Picture grabs
- Describe and draw activities
- Physical language drills
- Word and sentence auctions
- Jigsaw-text activities

Lesson 4

Tailored Lessons

Lesson 4 each day can cover any special requests you have made or deliver targeted language, based on the specific needs of that group of learners. Tailored content can include:

- Skills work
- Exam topics or orientation
- Revision of school syllabus items
- Remedial grammar clinic
- Presentation skills
- Vocabulary development
- Language survival skills
- British culture

Lesson 5

Project Work

A chance for learners to work individually or in groups on their own creative projects and to communicate in English about a topic of particular interest to them. Depending on the resources available, projects can take many forms:

- Video presentations
- Photo stories
- Board Games
- Webpage design
- Class magazines
- Posters
- Recipe books
- Surveys
- Advice leaflets

Lesson 6

End of course show preparation

The final lesson of the day is a chance for students to work towards an optional end-of-course presentation in English. Parents and friends can be invited and it's a great chance for students to show off their new-found confidence!

- Short drama sketches
- English songs
- Jokes
- Poetry
- Interviews
- Advertisements
- TV show spoofs
- Older students may choose instead to give a more formal presentation.

What teachers are saying about our courses:

"English in Action motivates English learners to improve their second language. Teachers are professional and the lessons are perfect to help students' oral skills"

Paula Rodriguez, San José School, Cadiz, Spain

"Kids love the classes because they are fun. EiA teachers have good communication with children who don't understand the language"

Natalia Kann, Podstawowa School, Warsaw, Poland

What students are saying about our courses:

"I practised English a lot. The experience gave me the confidence to speak English"

Rei, 13, Japan

"The teachers are great fun to learn with, because they emphasize communication over the correction of mistakes"

Kristina, 14, Bulgaria

"My EiA week was great. It was fun and helped me to improve my English"
